

TRAINING COURSE ON ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE

Monday 2 March 2015 (9:30-17:00), Mundo B, Rue d'Edimbourg 26, Brussels

<http://www.mundo-b.org/en/Contact.html>

AGENDA

9.30 – 10.00	Registration, coffee and cookies
10.00 – 10.30	Introduction to environmental justice and EJOLT project <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Introduction to environmental justice (Leah Temper, Autonomous University of Barcelona)• EJOLT map of environmental injustice (Daniela del Bene, Autonomous University of Barcelona)• Our response to environmental justice training needs (Beatriz Rodriguez-Labajos, Autonomous University of Barcelona)
10.30 – 11.10	Shell environmental injustice in Niger delta: analysis in theory <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Introduction to the Shell case (Goodwin Ojo, Friends of the Earth Nigeria)• Liability and valuation (Beatriz Rodriguez-Labajos, Autonomous University of Barcelona)• Health and risk (Marcelo Firpo Porto, Oswaldo Cruz Foundation, Brazil)• Legal tools (Angele Miguet, Documentation Centre on Environmental Conflicts, Italy)
11.10 – 11.30	Coffee and cookie break + screening the latest EJOLT video
11.30 – 13.00	Shell environmental injustice in Niger delta: analysis in practice <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Participants analyze the case in groups with support of the experts

13.00 – 14.00	Lunch break
14.00 – 14.30	Ecological debt: short introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Introduction to the ecological debt concept (Rikard Warlenius, Lund University)
14.30 – 15.40	Applying the environmental justice tools in practice <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Participants analyze practical cases in groups with support of the experts
15.40 – 16.00	Coffee and cookie break
16.00 – 16.30	Joint future battles for environmental justice <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Participants do a placard walk to familiarize with presented proposals for future battles for environmental justice
16.30 – 17.00	Wrap up of the training

www.ejolt.org